Section 302. Examination of books, records and other documents.

The department or any of its authorized agents is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers and records of any taxpayer or other persons in order to verify the accuracy and completeness of any return or report made, or if no return or report was made, to ascertain and assess any tax or other liability owed the Commonwealth.

Section 303. Concurrent enforcement powers.

Notwithstanding any provisions of the act of October 15, 1980 (P.L. 950, No. 164), known as the Commonwealth Attorneys Act, the department through the Office of General Counsel, in addition to the Attorney General, shall have the power vested in the Attorney General for the collection of tax liabilities under section 204(c) of the Commonwealth Attorneys Act and the power to prosecute in any court any criminal charges arising out of the enforcement of tax liabilities for Commonwealth taxes administered by the department.
